Tracy Evans, a three-time Olympian and National Champion in Freestyle Skiing, hosted a Celebrate Sochi Olympic viewing party at Boneyard Saloon & Kitchen in Park City on Feb. 20. The event was open to the public and raised around $2,500 to support Kids Play International's programs that share the Olympic values of Excellence, Friendship & Fair Play with the youth in Rwanda, Africa. Evans' nonprofit uses sport to promote gender equity in communities impacted by genocide. Other Olympians at the event included Paralympian Chris Waddell, Nikki Stone, Trace Worthington, Jana Lindsay, Lincoln DeWitt, Craig Rodman and Holly Flanders. Kids Play also organizes 2-week Olympian led volunteer trips open to all ages to both Rwanda and Cambodia. Visit kidsplayintl.org for more information
